REAL ESTATE DISCLOSURE FOR LANDLORD OR TENANT

Landlord's Agent: (No written agreement with Tenant; requires written agreement with Landlord)

If a Landlord signs a written agreement with us, we are an agent for the Landlord. As an agent for the Landlord, we represent the Landlord and owe the Landlord a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty, and confidence, in addition to the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries. The Landlord is legally responsible for our actions as an agent.

We may work with the Tenant in renting property even though we are an agent of the Landlord. In that event, we will not have a written agreement with the Tenant. The Tenant is not legally responsible for our actions. Even though we do not represent the Tenant, we will assist the Tenant as our customer and are obligated to deal fairly and honestly with the Tenant, to answer the Tenant's questions accurately concerning facts we know about the property, and to disclose any adverse material facts we know about the property. As the Landlord's agent, we have duties to disclose any adverse material facts we know about the property. As the Landlord's agent, we have duties to disclose to the Landlord certain information; therefore, the Tenant, as our customer, should not give us any information, which the Tenant does not want shared with the Landlord.

Tenant's Agent: (Requires written agreement with Tenant)

If the Tenant signs a written Tenant Agreement with us, we will act as an agent for the Tenant. If so, we represent the Tenant and owe the tenant a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty and confidence, in addition to the obligations enumerated below for Intermediaries. The Tenant is legally responsible for our actions as an agent. As the Tenant's Agent, Wyoming law requires us to disclose to potential Landlords all adverse material facts concerning Tenant's financial ability to perform the terms of the transaction. As the Tenant's Agent, we have duties to disclose to the Tenant certain information; therefore, the Landlord should not give us any information, which the Landlord does not want shared with the Tenant.

Intermediary: (Requires written agreement with Landlord and Tenant, or Tenant)

The Intermediary relationship is a non-agency relationship, which may be established between the broker and the Landlord and/or the broker and the Tenant in only two situations, both of which require written agreements.

First, if a Tenant who has signed a Tenant Agreement with us wants to look at or rent property we are managing or marketing as an agent for the Landlord, our relationship with the Landlord and Tenant will automatically change to Intermediary (no-agency) relationship with both the Tenant and the Landlord. On this type of in-house transaction, neither the Tenant nor the Landlord will be legally responsible for our actions as an Intermediary.

As an Intermediary (Non-Agent), we will not represent you and will not owe you a duty of utmost good faith, loyalty, and confidence. We will have the following obligations to you:

- disclose known adverse material facts about the property;
