Fair Credit Reporting Act and Consumer Reports

UNIVERSITY MANAGEMENT AND ITS AFFILIATES OBTAIN CONSUMER REPORTS FROM CONSUMER REPORTING AGENCIES, AND/OR CIVIL/CRIMINAL RECORDS FROM LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCIES TO EVALUATE APPLICATIONS FOR RENTING. I have read and understand the above Fair Credit Reporting Act and I authorize the person to whom this application is made and any credit bureaus or other investigative agencies employed by such person to investigate any references listed herein and statements or other data obtained from me or from any source pertaining to my credit or financial responsibility. I also authorize the person to whom this application is made (including his or her agents) to obtain a copy of my credit report to assist in evaluating my application and, thereafter, to obtain and use in attempting to collect unpaid rent, late fees, or other charges from me. A consumer report is any written, oral, or other communication from a consumer reporting agency which bears on an individual's creditworthiness, credit standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics, or mode of living which is used or expected to be used in whole or in part for the purpose of serving as a factor in establishing the consumer's eligibility for (a) credit or insurance to be used primarily for personal, family, or household purposes; (b) employment purposes; or (c) any other purposes authorized under section 604 of the Fair Credit Reporting Act.
